MI DEVELOPMENTS ANNOUNCES REPAYMENT BY MAGNA ENTERTAINMENT OF ITS BRIDGE LOAN FACILITY

November 14, 2006, Aurora, Ontario, Canada – MI Developments Inc. (MID) (TSX: MIM.A, MIM.B; NYSE: MIM) today announced that Magna Entertainment Corp. (MEC) (TSX: MEC.A; NASDAQ: MECA) has used approximately US$112 million of proceeds received in connection with the sale of The Meadows racetrack to repay in full its bridge loan facility with one of MID's subsidiaries.

John Simonetti, Chief Executive Officer, commented, "We are pleased that MEC has closed the sale of The Meadows, received the initial US$175 million of proceeds and repaid various debt obligations, including MID's bridge loan. MEC still has significant work to do to achieve financial stability and we continue to evaluate alternatives with respect to how best to assist them in these efforts."

About MID

MID is a real estate operating company engaged in the ownership, development, management, leasing and acquisition of industrial and commercial real estate properties located in North America and Europe. Virtually all of our income-producing properties are currently under lease to Magna International Inc. and its subsidiaries. MID also holds a controlling investment in MEC, North America's number one owner and operator of horse racetracks, based on revenues, and one of the world's leading suppliers, via simulcasting, of live racing content to the growing inter-track, off-track and account wagering markets.

Forward-Looking Statements

The contents of this press release may contain statements that, to the extent they are not recitations of historical fact, constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of applicable securities legislation, including the United States Securities Act of 1933 and the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements may include, among others, statements regarding the Company's proposed reorganization or its other future plans, goals, strategies, intentions, beliefs, estimates, costs, objectives, economic performance or expectations, or the assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Words such as "may", "would", "could", "will", "likely", "expect", "anticipate", "believe", "intend", "plan", "forecast", "project", "estimate" and similar expressions are used to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements should not be read as guarantees of future performance or results and will not necessarily be accurate indications of whether or the times at or by which such future performance will be achieved. Undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. Forward-looking statements are based on information available at the time and/or management's good faith assumptions and analyses made in light of our perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors we believe are appropriate in the circumstances, and are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other unpredictable factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control, that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause such differences include, but are not limited to, the risks set forth in the "Risk Factors" section in MID's Annual Information Form for 2005, filed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and attached as Exhibit 1 to MID's Annual Report on Form 40-F for the year ended December 31, 2005. The "Risk Factors" section also contains information about the material factors or assumptions underlying such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statements were made and unless otherwise required by applicable securities laws, MID expressly disclaims any intention and undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements contained in this press release to reflect subsequent information, events or circumstances or otherwise.
